PRESS RELEASE

Sand Festival SANDSATION paused in summer 2011

Sand sculptures will return in 2012

Berlin / Oldenburg, 15.04.2011 - Since 2003, the spectacular sand sculptures of SANDSATION are the flagship of the Berlin summer. A sight to locals and tourists alike will have to do without this year.

Uwe Schwettmann, managing director of SANDSATION GmbH explains:

"Our visitors and especially the loyal fans of SANDSATION expect a compelling and amazing SANDSATION-festival - and rightly so. That we cannot guarantee this year due to lack of conditions. Therefore we have decided to let SANDSATION pause in the summer of 2011."

In the summer of 2012, the sand sculpture festival with a revised concept will return to the capital.
